

Makerere University

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, DESIGN, ART AND TECHNOLOGY (CEDAT)

BRIEFING BY THE PRINCIPAL TO FIRST YEAR STUDENTS ON 23RD AUGUST 2016

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

You are most welcome to the CEDAT. On behalf of the entire community of CEDAT, I wish to congratulate you for having been admitted to a programme in this prestigious University. It is your hard work that has enabled you to make it here and I believe you are joining us with the same determination to succeed even here.

The College of Engineering, Design, Art and Technology (CEDAT) is one of the nine colleges and one independent school that make up Makerere University. CEDAT was formed from a merger of two academic units: former Faculty of Technology (FOT) and Margaret Trowell School of Industrial and Fine Arts (MTSIFA). It has a student population of about 3500, academic staff population of about 150 strong (excluding part time staff), administrative, technical and support staff of 59, and 22 group employees. The college also has a number of casual and contract staff.

CEDAT has produced some outstanding graduates, who currently manage most of the engineering, technological, design and art related establishments in this country and beyond. Our graduates are managing important portfolios in ministries such as those handling Works, Transport, Housing, Lands, Conservation, Heritage, Trade, Manufacturing, Energy, Water, Natural Resources, Finance, and many others. Others are working as District, City and Municipal officers. Quite a number of alumni are self employed designers, fine artists, engineers, architects, surveyors, and construction managers. Most of the members of academic staff at the College are also alumni of the College.

2. SOME IMPORTANT ISSUES

Please pay particular attention to the issues outlined below. This will enable you have an enjoyable and resourceful stay at the College and University.

a) Discipline

Discipline is the source of all success. Discipline means respect for self, peers, superiors, and for the rules and regulations that govern the University. You should at all times be clean and smart. Keep the premises in which you study clean. Do not litter. Avoid unbecoming behavior and damage to University equipment. Follow the study time-table strictly. Do not come to the class after the lesson has commenced. Do not miss classes and labs unless you are ill. When ill, inform the Head of Department in writing through a colleague and submit the doctor's report as soon as possible. Gross indiscipline may lead to dismissal from the University.

Avoid sexual relationships and alcohol as much as possible as they can easily derail you from your studies.

Avoid extremism in religion and politics. Makerere is a secular institution. Be a good believer in your religion but be prepared to bend religious norms in a few instances. e.g. during examinations. Be moderate in playing politics.

Avoid participating in strikes. Remember that when there are strikes, the students suffer most. We thank the continuing students of CEDAT for not actively participating in strikes.

Avoid and guard against acts of terrorism. Watch your neighbor and report as soon as you notice strange things.

b) Payment of Fees

Privately sponsored students are strongly advised to pay fees according to the schedule in the joining instructions. Please note that failure to pay fees as stipulated in the joining instructions may lead to denial of attending classes, submitting coursework, sitting tests and end-of-semester examinations.

Do not divert funds to other activities. Avoid money lending.

c) Registration

All students are required to register at the College. Please register with the College Registrar. Government-sponsored students should register without delay. The Registrar will give you the timetable for registration.

d) Examinations

There are continuous assessments and end-of-semester examinations. Examinations are conducted with the highest integrity at Makerere University. You must avoid any temptations to engage in examinations malpractices. Students found to have engaged in any kind of examination malpractices are subject to disciplinary action including suspension and dismissal from the University. Please note that this applies to take home assignments and tests, which are part of the examinations. Plagiarism is not acceptable and is a serious offense.

e) Other University Regulations

You must read and understand all the other University regulations. Please pay special attention to regulations concerning discontinuation from the programme, withdrawal and re-joining, minimum graduation requirements, examination irregularities and malpractices, etc. Ignorance of the law is no defense.

f) Extra Curricula Activities

You are strongly advised to engage in extra curricula activities. These include participation in games and the activities of professional organizations. CEDAT holds a sports gala every year. Students are encouraged to participate.

The Faculty also holds an annual exhibition of student works. These events are organized jointly by the six students' organizations. The six students' organizations are:

- Makerere Fine Art Students Association (MAFASA)
- Makerere Engineering Society (MES)
- Makerere Architecture Students Association (MASA) and
- Makerere Association of Surveying Students (MASS)
- Makerere Association of Construction Management students (MAC)
- Makerere University Physical Planners Association (MUPPA)

The students' organizations help the members to grow in their intended professions.

The students' organizations also organize educational trips annually. You will get more information from the leadership of these organizations.

g) Change of Programme

Students who wish to change programme must do so within the first two weeks. Forms for this purpose are obtainable from the Admissions Office of the Academic Registrar's Department in Senate Building.

h) Respect for University Property, Colleagues and Staff

I wish to urge all of you to use the University property with care. Protect this property, it belongs to you and future generations.

Please respect yourself, your colleagues and the members of staff. This will make your stay at Makerere and CEDAT pleasant.

i) Don't over celebrate your passing A-level. Concentrate on the future

Do not take it for granted that because you excelled at A – level, you will always excel. Concentrate on your studies. Get a copy of the time table and appear in class today without fail. Attend to all class activities and meet deadlines set by the lecturers.

At the University, the examinations are set by the people who teach you. Marks are accumulated right from the first assignments and tests.

j) Information

Check the websites, emails and notice boards for more information. In case of doubt, ask your class captain. In case the class captain cannot handle the issue, go to the class tutor and in case the tutor cannot handle the matter, go to the Head of Department or other concerned officer. Be courteous in your dealings and other people will easily reciprocate.

Class captains should inform the Heads of Departments in case lecturers do not appear as scheduled. There is a form for monitoring class attendance. In addition, help us to improve the quality of service delivery by participating in the evaluation of course delivery.

3. CONCLUSION

Makerere University has a very good reputation and is ranked among the Best in Africa. You have been admitted to one of the premier universities in Africa and make your contribution for it to shine even the more.

Work hard to join the professions you are aspiring for.

Once again, welcome to Makerere University. We Build for the Future.
